

Rancho Cotate High School Project Graduation Technology, El Camino and Phoenix High Schools

Many of you are aware of the tradition that was started in 1988 for the graduating seniors of Rancho Cotate, Technology, El Camino and Phoenix High Schools called Project Graduation. Parents, volunteers and businesses from the community have been donating countless hours and thousands of dollars to provide a graduation night party for all seniors, free of alcohol and drugs, in a fun and safe environment.

This event is sponsored by volunteers and supported by individuals and businesses like yours in the community who believe in a safe, alcohol-free place for our graduating seniors to celebrate.

Please stay involved in your child's life. We'll always be their mom or dad, regardless of their ages. We've been given an incredible opportunity to mold and shape a member of our society. Don't let this moment slip away.
